OPTION 2: Historic Grendale & Visitor Center

9:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

Exactly the same tour as Option 1 at left, but with a different lunch menu (see below).

To elaborate on Options 1 & 2, in both tours you'll learn how Grendale was chosen from more than 100 cities by the Roosevelt Administration in 1934 to become one of just three "Greenbelt Towns" in the entire nation.

You'll also learn why the town's designer decided to turn all the original homes "backwards", and how low-income families were selected to live here, with the government as their landlord.

You'll learn how the 37,000 flowers in the Village Center are cared for by "Weed Out Warriors", a group of volunteer residents...and much more.
